Reflection Questions:

1. How much do you enjoy or dread election cycles?
2. What are some ways that you observed “church” people getting combative, or hostile and downright ugly towards others during the last election cycle?
3. Read Philippians 3:17-21.
4. What is the message of the cross, and why is Paul distraught over those who have rejected it?
5. What are some ways that Paul describes those who have their minds set on earthly things?
6. Paul tells Christians that they are citizens of heaven. What does it look like to live as a citizen of heaven while we reside here on earth?
7. Paul tells us that Jesus is Savior and Lord. In the midst of an election cycle, what does it mean that Jesus is our Savior and Lord?
8. On Sunday, the point was made that parties, candidates, and pieces of legislation cannot transform hearts. Do you believe that?
9. What kind of change can Jesus bring that no one and nothing else can?
10. What are some ways that you might better live into your heavenly citizenship this election cycle?
