1. Back to the basics when it comes to leadership.

2. Back to the basics when it comes to relationships.

3. Back to the basics in our response to conflict.

4. Back to the basics in pursuing goodness.

Reflection Questions:

1. When thinking about “going back to the basics,” what does it look like for you in your faith journey?
2. How do you think Paul has the church in Thessalonica reflect on the basics in verses 12-15?
3. Paul encourages this young church in many ways in these verses. Is there anything you do well in verses 12-15 that reflect that you are a follower of Jesus?
4. Paul instructs this young church to do several things in these four verses. What are one or two areas that you could focus on this week to build a better church community with your brothers and sisters in Christ?
